

A diagram showing a large white rectangular area enclosed by a thin grey border. This area is itself inside a larger frame with a thick red border. On the left side of the white area, there are two labels: 'Cut' in red text and 'Text Safe' in grey text. A short red horizontal line extends from the left edge of the red border to the 'Cut' label. A short grey horizontal line extends from the left edge of the grey border to the 'Text Safe' label.
